STIFF SCHEDULE FOR THE CHAMPS

[illegible]

LEAD AGAIN

Capt. Hurley, of the Harvard eleven, announced to-day that the election of a captain for the Crimson eleven for next year would be held next Friday evening.

There are three leading men in the Crimson eleven who will be serious candidates, and who will not hesitantly be chosen for the captaincy. These three are: Spencer, halfback; Montgomery, end, and Hughes, guard and tackle. Of these three, Montgomery seems to be the most likely man for the captaincy, as he has played on the varsity team since his freshman year as a substitute.

Harvard men are hoping, however, that the players who won their "file" this year, and will vote for next year's captain, will discard caution and elect John Hurley, who will be in the Harvard stadium for the first time in many months as a player on the Crimson eleven.

None of the players has had anything to say about the probable captaincy, but to say about John Hurley's chances are, of course, hardly surety has not said that he will play next year, or that he would accept the captaincy if elected.

SLEEVES OF THE SEASON. BY MRS. OSBORN

Sleeve of velvet coat
The all-lace sleeve
The popular short sleeve
The long, close fitting Louis XVI. sleeve, with its deep full of lace about the wrist, is always pretty.
A smart little sleeve much worn at present is composed of two parts: the upper part is of lace, the lower part is of velvet. The velvet part is of a color to match the lace. The lace part is of a color to match the velvet. The velvet part is of a color to match the lace. The lace part is of a color to match the velvet.

Life in City and Country Recipes
It Means Simple Life
The article by the Rev. Thomas R. Gregory, in your paper is a very interesting one. It is a study of the life of the city and the life of the country. It is a study of the life of the city and the life of the country. It is a study of the life of the city and the life of the country.

Pinto Chaper
Since I have moved to the city, I have found that the life of the city is very different from the life of the country. It is a life of the city and the life of the country. It is a life of the city and the life of the country.

Hominy
Put a quart of water over the fire in a kettle and add a generous measure of hominy. Let it boil for an hour. Then add a little salt and a little butter. Let it boil for another hour. Then add a little salt and a little butter. Let it boil for another hour.

Baked Peas
Peas are a very good food. They are easy to cook and they are very good for you. They are easy to cook and they are very good for you. They are easy to cook and they are very good for you.

Scotch Shortcake
An Americanized Scotch shortcake is made thus: When a simple dessert is wanted, make an ordinary cooking dish, having with it a little cream or vanilla, and put on the fire. Stir it with a spoon. When it is done, add a little cream or vanilla. Stir it with a spoon. When it is done, add a little cream or vanilla.

Lyonnais Tripe
Try one splendid tablespoon of chopped onion in three level tablespoons of butter. Let it boil for an hour. Then add a little salt and a little butter. Let it boil for another hour. Then add a little salt and a little butter. Let it boil for another hour.

Now WHAT D'VE THINK OF THAT?
I never had a little girl. I wish I had a little girl. I wish I had a little girl. I wish I had a little girl. I wish I had a little girl. I wish I had a little girl.

Practical Co-operative Housekeeping

FOR FAMILIES OF ONLY MODERATE MEANS

For a President who is a moderate, Brooklyn, N. Y., outlining a plan for a co-operative movement. She proposes that three small families contribute the minimum amount of $15 per week toward maintaining a four-story and basement house, which will be rented to a good neighborhood.

Each family will have a room consisting of two very large rooms and a bathroom. The family taking the third floor would have a room, a bathroom, and a kitchen. The family taking the second floor would have a room, a bathroom, and a kitchen. The family taking the first floor would have a room, a bathroom, and a kitchen.

The offer in this family will have entire charge of the household for a stated term—possibly one month. Her duties will consist of marketing, cooking, and washing. If necessary, some daily cooking, which could not be expected of an ordinary servant.

All members of the household are to dine in the same dining room, but each family as mentioned will have its own suite of rooms. The fourth floor of the house would be used for a general reading room, a servant's room, guest room and store room.

The money would be apportioned as follows: Room $10; servant $10; extra help $10; coal $10; gas $10; water $10; light $10; telephone $10; and a small amount for the household. The rest of the money would be used for the household.
